We hope you feel that you are always treated fairly, and feel able to come into school to discuss issues. We are always open to reviewing our equity policies.

Head teacher Weekly Update:

It has been a lovely week at Nanpean School as I have immensely enjoyed seeing the children learning in school and taking part in extra curricular opportunities.

At the beginning of the week, I enjoyed walking around the school during Read, Write, Inc (Phonics) sessions and noticed how much the children enjoyed this focus on Phonics in their small groups. It is imperative that all children arrive in school on time to ensure they can take part in these sessions, as these sessions help to develop reading and spelling skills. It is also exciting that we have been selected to work alongside the English Hub South West this year. This has enabled us to gain funding to be spent on updating Resources, Reading Books and Training for Staff to ensure the children receive high quality Phonics teaching with the ultimate aim of improving standards and outcomes. Thanks to Mrs Hayes and Miss Morton who will be leading this initiative in school.

Due to my immense passion for Sport, I was delighted to see the start of the Clay Schools Sports League taking place this week. I originally created the League and still help to oversee fixtures and results. I enjoyed transporting the children to Roche and was impressed with the application of the children. Despite losing the matches, the scorelines didn't reflect the efforts of our children (see reports elsewhere in the newsletter) and I am certain that if they continue playing as they did against the strong Roche teams, we will win many of our future fixtures. I am also looking forward to taking part in the Cross Country league at Par this year, with the first race being in November.

On a different note, it was also fantastic to hold the first Parents Forum meeting of this Academic Year on Wednesday morning. I always appreciate parental contributions and it was good to discuss School Improvement Priorities for 2019-20 and Parent Friends of Nanpean School Events this week.

I hope you all have a wonderful weekend and I look forward to seeing you next week.

Best wishes,

Mr M Nicholls, Headteacher
