Head Teacher Weekly Update

Dear Parents

I have had a mixed up week in school with a couple of days out supporting schools within The Trust. I am pleased to say that the children have continued with their high levels of behaviour and showing respect.

We are now knee deep in end of term and winter celebrations, carol singing and Nativity practice have already started. The infant Nativity will be on Wednesday 11th December with two performances, one in the afternoon and one in the early evening. Families will be able to get their tickets from 27th November. This year we will be asking for a £1 entry fee to cover the cost of the performance, but in return we will offer a 'lucky seat' with an amazing prize. The Key Stage 2 performance will now form part of the Christmas Fayre, which will be held on the afternoon of Wednesday 18th December. This year things will be a little different as our newly formed PTA will be running the fayre, further details will be sent out following their next meeting.

We will be able to announce the name of our new Headteacher on Friday, when their school will also be informed of their departure. Please look out for a message from us on Friday.

Have a great end to the week
Miss Harvey

TTRS - 'England Rocks'

Last week, Nanpean School took part in a Nationwide Times Tables Rock Stars competition - England Rocks.

We came away from this with some pretty impressive stats. As a school, we finished in 3rd place out of 4168 primary school in England.

We were top of the leaderboard for the South West, finishing 1st in this area.

Riley M (Rosemellyn) finished 25th out of 28435 competitors in South West England!

We couldn't be more proud of our budding Mathematicians! You truly do 'Rock'!

Thank you Mr Newland!!

One of our parents has very kindly donated their time to come and rotovate the area behind Melbur class. He also donated some shrubs alongside the ones Mrs Williams has planted to create a beautiful outdoors area for all of our children to enjoy! We truly appreciate these acts of kindness and feel it amplifies what Nanpean School is all about – community spirit!

Poppy Appeal

Thank you to everyone who bought poppies and helped raise funds for the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal. This year we raised an impressive £85.91!
